CODE OF ETHICS

- I will at all times conduct my operations and services in an ethical and business-like manner.
- Rates, accommodations and services will be clearly defined to prospective clients prior to booking and acceptance of deposits. I will not misrepresent rates, service accommodations nor otherwise mislead prospective clients through false or fictitious advertising.
- I will maintain all my equipment including livestock, camp gear, boats, vehicles and all other miscellaneous gear in good condition and working order.
- I will employ only well-trained, courteous and sufficient personnel to adequately care for guests and render necessary services.
- I will not allow any wanton waste of fish or game on a trip that is my responsibility. Also, I'll make every effort to keep all fish and game in a fresh and edible condition. Utmost care will be taken to preserve all trophies in a satisfactory condition.
- An effort will be made on my part to honestly inform my clients on the general well-being and status of game and fish relative to the respective area, for their more knowledgeable understanding of the current situation relative to their specific booking and type of trip.
- I will make a sincere effort to inform my clients with adequate information on the type of country, weather, travel involved, clothing requirements and hunting or fishing skill required (if any), for them to fully enjoy their outdoor experience to the individual's satisfaction.
- I will at all times provide for the safety of my clients and employed personnel and, when necessary, will not hesitate to remind anyone of unsafe practices which have come to my attention.
- I will fully cooperate with Federal, State and local fish and wildlife officials; I will advise my clients of all applicable conservation standards, fish and game laws, license requirements, statutes and regulations and will not condone their violation.
- I will at all times cooperate fully with private landowners, public land management agencies and/or stockmen, other guides and respect their rights and privileges.
- I will always leave a clean camp, striving to maintain the environment in as good or better condition than when I arrived.
